

Join the discussion

DCU staff who are not registered for One DCU yet, can do so as illustrated by the following screen grabs:

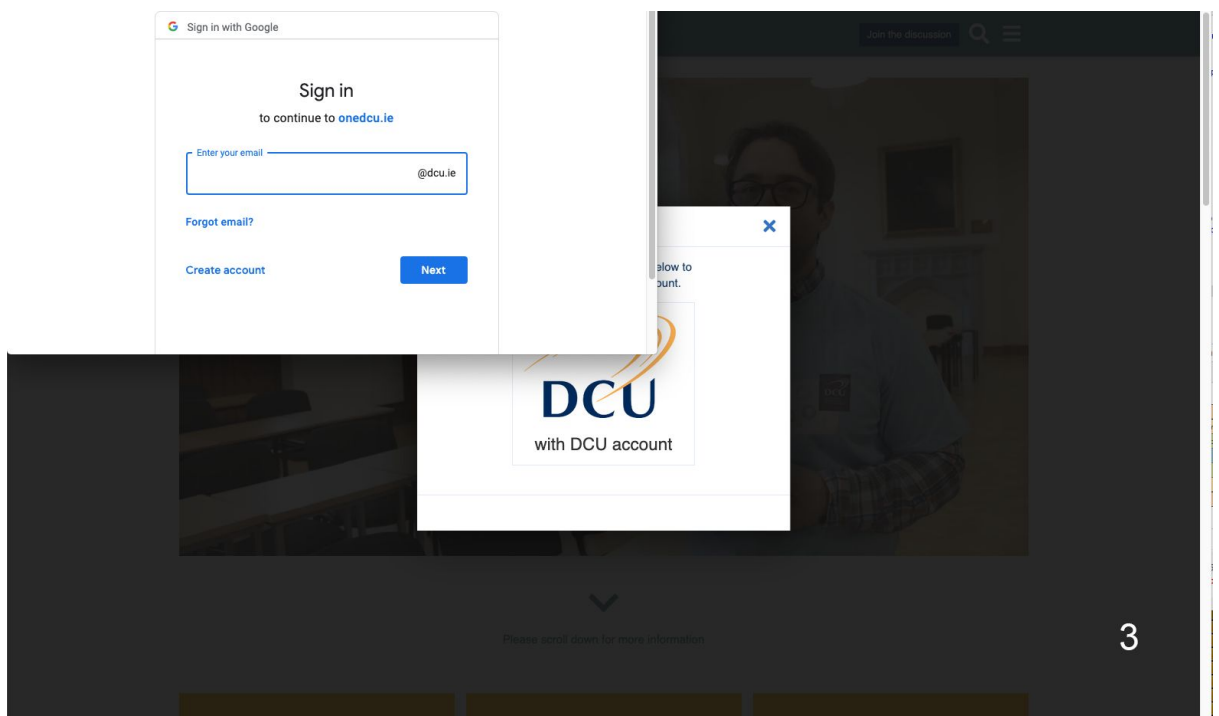

1. To be part of the event the visitor clicks Join the conversation

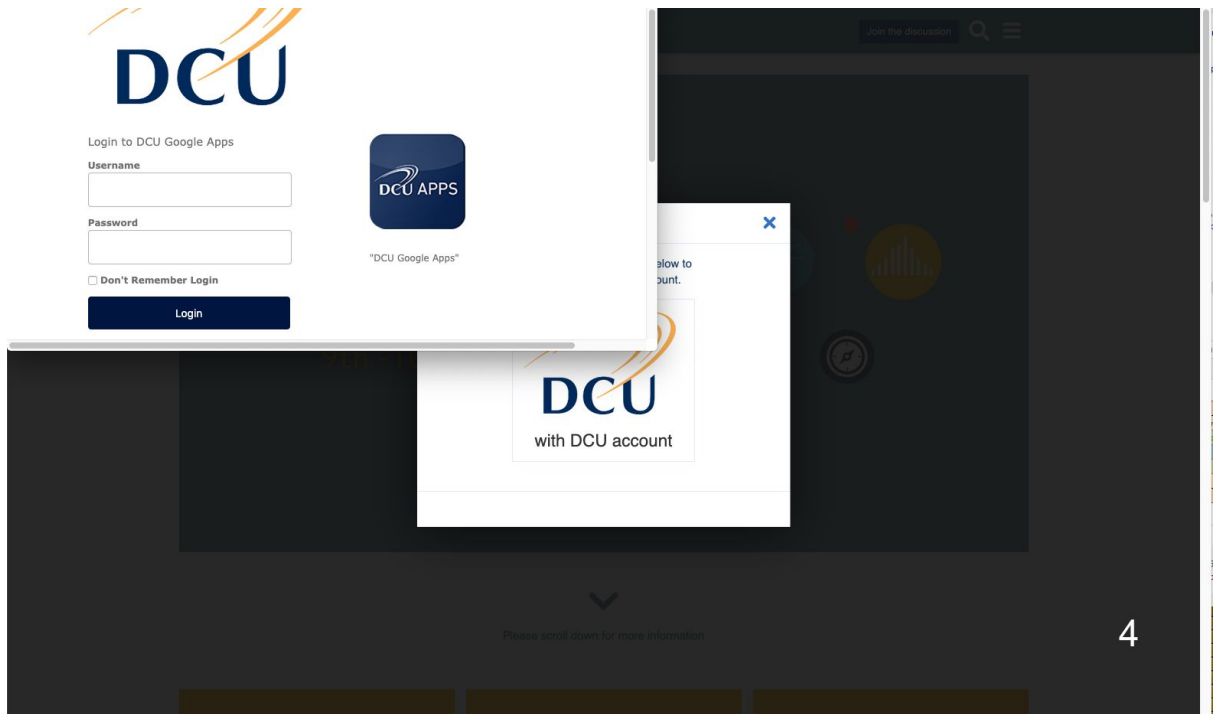

2. A modal pops up to encourage people to login using their DCU account providing links to the Privacy policy and the Terms of Service which will open in a new tab

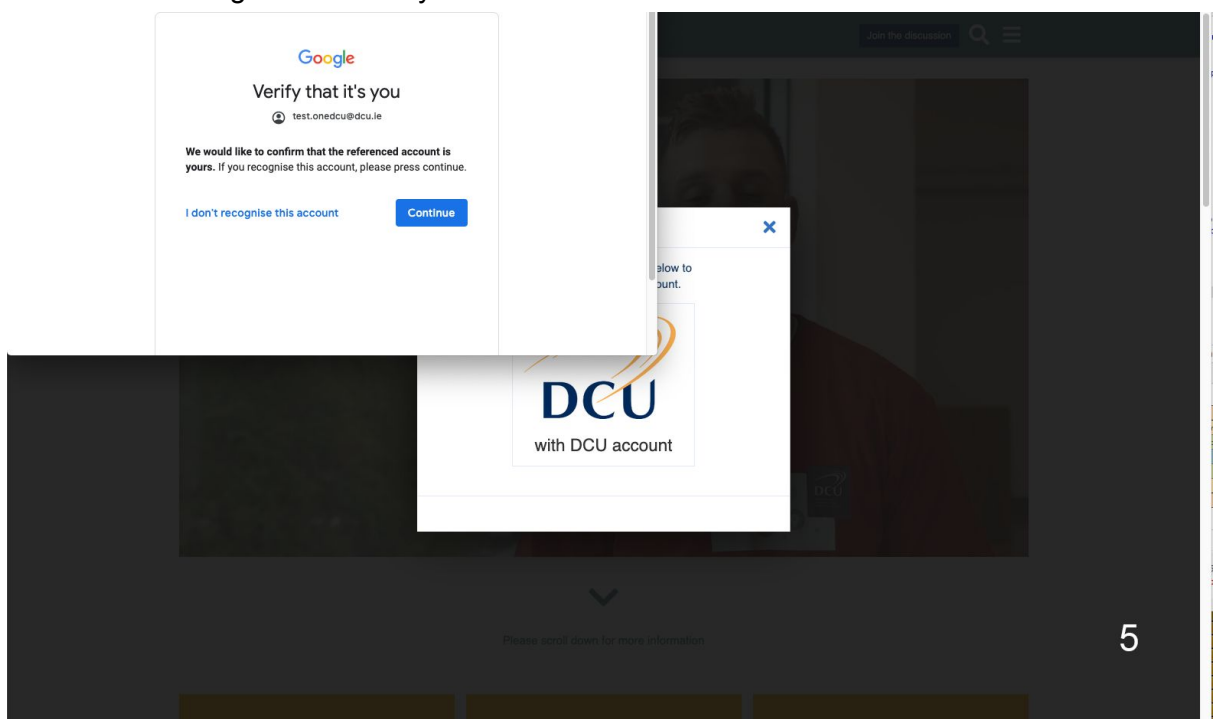

3. If they are not yet signed in to their DCU account, Google asks them to provide their email address

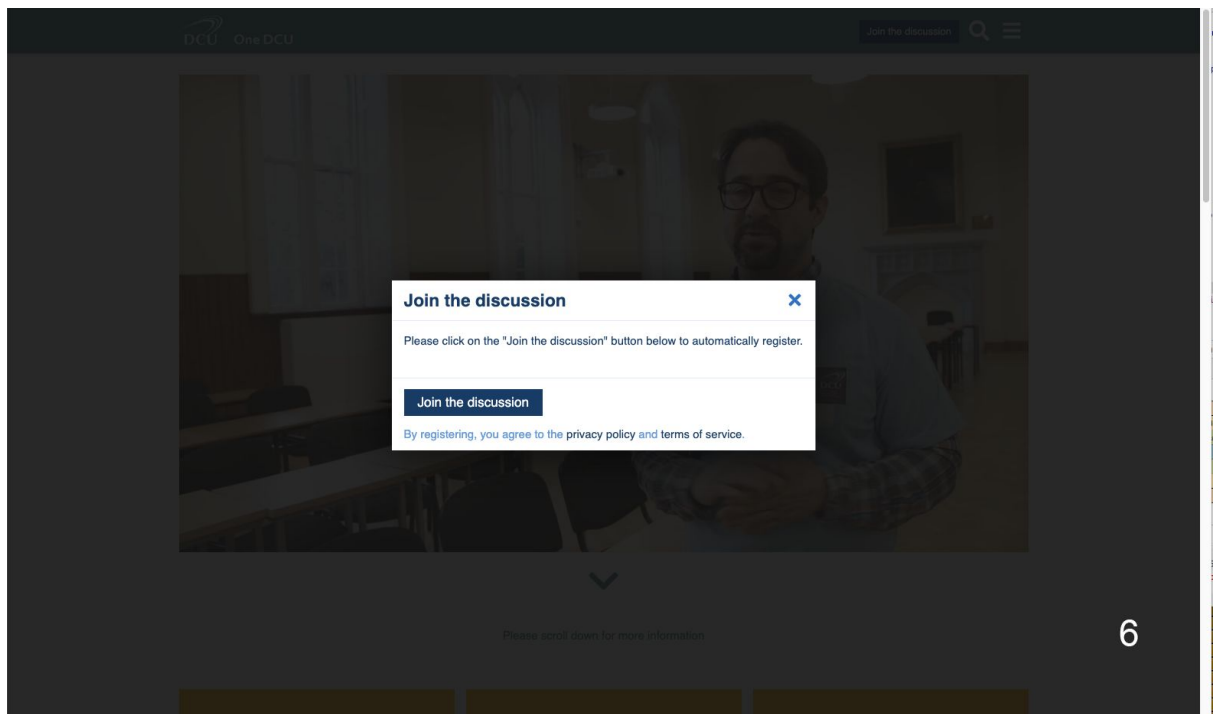

4. Google recognises that it is a DCU address and redirects to DCU's SSO login screen

5. More default Google functionality

6. The visitor is asked to join the discussion
